What is Crypto Currency?

Cryptocurrency is a type of digital or virtual currency that uses cryptography for security. It operates on decentralized networks based on blockchain technology, which is a distributed ledger enforced by a network of computers. Unlike traditional currencies issued by governments (fiat currencies), cryptocurrencies are typically not controlled by any central authority, making them theoretically immune to government interference or manipulation. Bitcoin was the first cryptocurrency, created in 2009, and since then, thousands of other cryptocurrencies with various features and purposes have been developed.
